BOGUS CHECK WORKER

And Suesek Thief. Wanted Here, Captured At Columbus, O.—Will Be Brought Back To Stand Trial.

Chief of Police James Muekey received word yesterday morning that Howard St. Clair, the young man wanted here on charges of forgery and grand larceny, had been captured in Columbus, O.

Several weeks ago the young man visited this city and gave the name of Howard St. Clair, representing himself to be the son of Judge St. Clair of Georgetown, O. While here he purchased an overcoat from George H. Frank & Company, and gave a "cold" check in payment for it. It is alleged that later he visited the houseboat business moored at the foot of Lower street, and took a number of articles from it.

Requisition papers will be secured from Governor Stanley and the young fellow will be brought back to this city for trial. It is probable that he will go to the penitentiary on the charges placed against him.

WOULD-BE BURGLARS.

Burglars attempted to enter the home of L. N. Conductor Everett Peterson on East Third street early Monday morning, but were scared away by Mr. Peterson before they secured anything.

Miss Katherine Downey has accepted the position as stenographer and bookkeeper for the Maysville Garment Company, and will go to Cincinnati this week to make the transfer of accounts. The garment company will begin operations here possibly next week.

Mrs. Roger Devine and children will leave this week for Cleveland, O., where she will join her husband. They will make their future home in that city. She will be accompanied by her father, Mr. Pat Breen.

1915---OUR BANNER YEAR---1915

We wish to thank our many friends and customers for their liberal patronage for this, our fourth year in business, which has proven to be considerable beyond our anticipation, for which we are very thankful.

We are now looking forward to a greatly increased business the coming year and we have installed the latest and most improved equipment for handling your orders, which guarantees high grade mill work and satisfaction to all, at the best possible prices.

We are leaders in our line.

HOBBIES

A prominent physician tells us that "hobbies" are healthy things for us to have, and we feel that we must be blessed with unusually good health, as we have ALWAYS had a hobby—and it's

HARNESS!

Years ago, when leather sold for nineteen cents a pound, our boast was that we made the best harness that could be made of good leather, good thread and good workmanship. Now, when that same kind of leather is selling for forty-nine and fifty cents a pound, we still maintain that we have the best harness that can be made. All you have to do to prove that we are telling you facts is to go to the next "sale," and hear Col. Hensley Hawkins say in that musical drawl for which he is so famous, "This is a set, gentlemen, of Mike Brown's Harness. What do you bid?" Then's when you can see the farmer "set up and take notice," for he knows there will be some bidding on that harness.

This is the time of the year, when harness is foremost in every farmer's mind, and this is the time of the year, also, when we are ready to sell him. All winter long our men have been making up harness for Spring trade, and now we are ready. Of course, it's higher than when our grandfathers used to buy it, but, considering the price of leather, it's a wonder how low in price and high in quality the Square Deal harness is.

Come in, gentlemen, we are ready to rig up those horses.

BRICK AND ASPHALT

Connell Passes the Necessary Ordinances Regarding the Improving of Several Streets.

Connell met in regular monthly session Monday night, Mayor Lee in the chair and all members present.

The reports of the various city officials were read and accepted. The Claims and Accounts Committee showed expenditures for January $2,910.49.

Fire Chief Nowell's report showed the Fire Department responded to three alarms last month.

Mayor Lee Reported the following licenses collected the past month:

Life and accident insurance	$ 450.00
Fire and tornado insurance	590.00
Livery stables and garages	225.00
Pool, billiard rooms and bowling alleys	185.00
Cigarettes	220.00
Hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, lunch stands	342.50
Real estate dealers	45.00
Seals on streets	25.00
Insurance solicitors	30.00
Oil tank wagons	150.00
Vehicles of all kinds	377.00
Miscellaneous	81.50

Total $2,721.00
Total wharfage collected during the past year was $577.34.

City Treasurer Curran reported receipts $10,761.11, expenditures $6,114.10 for the month of January, leaving a balance of $4,647.01.

Building permits were granted as follows:

John F. P. Tolle, one-story frame dwelling, metal roof, on Fifth street, Third ward.

A. C. James, frame shed adjoining stable on Second street, Fourth ward. S. M. Klag, storehouse, composition roof, metal siding, on Second street, Fourth ward.

Secretary Boone of the Chamber of Commerce asked that Connell take some action in regard to the farmers who are compelled to leave their wagons on the streets over night without a light not be amenable to the new law, which was explained to mean that there would not be any farmer molested if he did not have a proper warning on his wagon. The tobacco warehouses will take care of their customers.

Poolroom license was granted C. F. Bland, on Market street between Front and Second.

R. H. Hudson of Flemingsburg, was granted auctioneer's license for Maysville.

The Maysville Gas Company and Street Railway Company reported that the loop lot had been assessed to both companies and had paid taxes twice on it, and the matter was referred to the Propositions and Grievances Committee.

Mr. Farrell and Jessie Williams were placed on the pension list at $4 per month.

The ordinances relative to the improving of Sutton, Market, Plum, East Third and Second from Limestone bridge to Carmel street, with vitrified brick, and of Court street with asphalt were read and received.

Mr. William D. Cochran was granted permission to address Connell and asked that instead of brick that asphalt be used from Union to Carmel streets, he presenting two petitions signed by a majority of property holders. Mr. Cochran made it plain to the members of Council that asphalt is the only paving to put on that thoroughfare, as it was so well adapted to residential purposes—in fact, from Bridge street east is practically the only portion left for the erection of dwelling houses in this city and it is only fair that council take cognizance of the petitioners' desire, which they did, all but Mr. Easton, who, voted no, as he said he was for brick, and Second street, from Union to Carmel, was changed from brick to asphalt.

The rules were suspended and the ordinances were passed as originally read, with the corrections made.

The junk and family boat ordinance was defeated.

The soft drink and near beer ordinance was put on its passage, an amendment being offered to reduce the fee from $1,000 to $200 was lost. The ordinance as originally read was lost.

An ordinance prohibiting the sale, barter or loan of any intoxicating liquor in this city was read, and after receiving Connell's approval the rules and passed it. It provides for a fine of from $100 to $1,000 for bootlegging.

An ordinance licensing near beer, malt liquors and cider and fixing the tax at $200 was passed.

An ordinance imposing a tax of $15 per year on manufacturers of pop, soft drinks or coca-cola was passed.

An ordinance imposing a license tax of $50 on wholesalers or agents of near beer, coca-cola and soft drinks was passed.

An ordinance imposing a license tax of $25 on soda fountains was passed.

An ordinance imposing $5 for the sale of bottled pop was passed. City Attorney Calhoun asked council to send the Attorney, the Mayor and Hon. Stanley Reed to Frankfort to lobby a bill through the Legislature on taxation, and they will go.

A committee was appointed to confer with the City Collector in regard to dividing up with the police on the collection of taxes.

Chairman Russell of the Ways and Means Committee was authorized to pay the interest due at the Bank of Maysville.

Connell authorized the printing and issuing of $20,000 worth of emergency bonds.

Progress was reported on the Amason "hump."

The rock crusher was brought into prominence again and it is likely will revert to the city again.

A light in front of the old library building on Sutton street was referred to the Light Committee.

Fourth street between Market and Limestone was reported in bad shape. The street will be attended to.

Connell adjourned at 11:30 after re-employing Engineer Hinzler to be here next meeting night.

12 QUARTS

Of Bottled Booze Taken From a Fellow Who Had Been Arrested On Minor Charge.

Monday night while the City Dads were wrestling with the ordinances relative to brick and asphalt streets, and Attorney John Calhoun had just begun the reading of the first ordinance, an officer broke in and demanded of the City Attorney the law on a minor offense, which was given him.

When heard from again it developed that a fellow named Herley, who said he was from Robertson county, had been taken up before Chief Mackey, and two split baskets he carried being examined, were found to contain twelve quarts of bottled-in-bond whisky.

Chief Mackey had him held in bond, which he gave, on a bootlegging and having an unlawful amount of liquor in his possession charge.

ITINERANT MERCHANT—AND OTHERS.

"The itinerant merchant pays no taxes; pays no licenses; pays no rent; has no local payroll; does not enrich, but rather drains the community. It has been suggested that there should be a co-operation of effort between commercial organizations and city authorities that will tend to lessen or entirely do away with these itinerant merchants. The local taxpaying business man should be protected."

The above quotation is from a bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce of Portland, Ore. It is a true statement of facts and the business men of Maysville are, or ought to be, interested in it.

The business men of every community and their city authorities should co-operate in protecting the taxpaying business man from the non-resident whose only interest is to drain money out of the community and deprive home workers of their livelihood. This is a business matter—not politics.

In the larger affairs of the nation, it is just as important that chambers of commerce co-operate with national authorities in protecting American business men from the non-resident who seeks to sell here the goods produced by foreign workers, thus draining our country and depriving our working people of a corresponding amount of profitable employment.

We see no distinction. If a city peddler's license is defensible, so is a national protective tariff. If national free trade is a sound economic policy, then we should repeal every law that imposes a license on peddlers. If our policy is to be "buy where you can buy the cheapest," let the foreign producers and itinerant merchants be given a cordial welcome. If chambers of commerce are to be enlisted in the fight against Americans who wish to go into neighboring states to sell their wares, let them also enlist in the fight against citizens of foreign nations who would come here and undersell our home producers.

Let us be consistent. Let us be for America first, as we are for Maysville first.

THE COST OF SHOES.

There are reports from shoe manufacturing centers that owing to high cost of leather and labor, further advances in shoes are likely. If so, this is a pretty serious item in the cost of living.

In the family with a growing family of children to support, the shoe cost sometimes seems more than the clothing cost. Children are absolutely heedless, and they never stop to think of the effect of weather or play on their foot wear. A good active boy often wears through a pair of shoes in a month or two. In the case of grown-ups, the pair of shoes that one used to pay $3 for seem to cost about $4 now, and the price is likely enough to go higher.

It is all a part of the conditions created by the decline of the live stock industries. The same causes have boosted sky high the prices of meat. With the population of the United States increasing and the number of cattle decreasing, it is easy to see why hides, leather and beef alike are held at fancy prices.

When the prices of shoes go up, the tendency of many people is to buy cheaper goods. This means that they buy upper leather cut down into the flanks where the texture is loose slippy. Shoes of this kind wear but a short time and the most costly kind. If a man can't afford to wear a shoe cut from leather near the backbone, where the texture is firm and closely knit, he should buy a heavier shoe, in which the material is thick enough to offer some resistance.

This is a period when people who live and work indoors have tender feet, and they call for soft shoes. Our fathers and mothers used to wear heavy shoes and felt comfortable in them. About the only choice that is economical today is between a solid and heavy shoe that has body enough to wear, and a light shoe from the line part of the leather that costs high but has a firm and enduring texture.

DINNERS AND DINNERS.

Every little while some enterprising correspondent sends out to the daily press of the country a glowing account of a dinner given by some metropolitan multimillionaire. This twaddle is extended and amplified even to a description of the virtues of the $10,000 a year chef or the latest pet monkey that are from the same table.

We haven't any $10,000 chef, and we don't hanker after the company of four-footed monkeys, but we want to say right here that the fellow who eats at our table will get a meal set before him that has more solid enjoyment in it than any of those produced for multimillionaires and monkeys.

And there's many a man in this town who has the same opinion of the good old-fashioned dinners served up by his own wife.

Our battered old editorial heart is just bubbling over with joy. We knocked off grinding out copy for the printers the other day and took a stroll around town just for exercise. Everywhere we went we found some one who had a good word to say, an expression of good will to offer, and no once did we hear a knock against this town, the people, ourself or the paper. Truly, it is good for any man to live among such a whole hearted and clean people. We hope to live to be a hundred.

The man of millions is the one who will profit most by our new policy of preparedness. Hence the man of millions is the one who should cough up liveliest in the matter of paying the freight. Tax the big incomes—and collect the taxes.

We had the pleasure of shaking hands this week with one of the brightest, brainiest and most loyal men of this whole community and we pumped his arm right royally. We do it every time they pay up.

And soon, now, the long haired, spindle shanked, short trousered, eye-glassed city youth will be out on the farm again telling father how to make a million out of a penny.

If we wanted to go down in history as a false prophet the one big stunt we'd pull off would be to predict an early peace in Mexico.

When a fellow makes a practice of knocking his home town it is time for everybody else to hand him a few.

T. H. Short, manager of the Rapid Transit Company, reached Columbia a few days ago from Lexington with a full-blooded imported bloodhound. He is well trained and is 6 years old. This information will probably not be received with gladness by parties who are in the habit of picking up things or breaking locks.

Champion Scholar.

(Cadiz Record.)
Noah L. Gilbert, Jr., son of N. L. Gilbert of Murray, has attended the Baptist Sunday school every Sunday for ten consecutive years. When the boy first started to Sunday school he was very small and was inspired to regular attendance by the offer by the pastor of the church that he would give a book for every three months' attendance without absence, and if there had not been his absence in a whole year at the end of it a better book would be given. From the time he decided to attend regularly ten years ago he has not missed a Sunday. He has acquired quite a library for a boy through the gifts of the pastor, H. Boyce Taylor.

Hemp Selling High.

(Lawrence Record.)
The large crop of hemp grown in Garrard county during the year 1915 is now about ready for the market, and the growers are being offered 10 cents per pound, while some are holding out for 12 cents. The breaking process is somewhat slow because of adverse weather conditions and the scarcity of negro laborers, who fully understand the handling of the old-fashioned breaks that are still used by Garrard farmers in preparing the flax product for the market. Ten cents per pound is the highest price ever paid hemp growers in this section, and this is a great stimulus for a much larger acreage of Garrard land to be given to the cultivation of the fiber during 1916.

OUR DAILY BIRTHDAY PARTY February 8.

Baron Rothschild of England, who sacrificed the fifty-million dollar inheritance of his father, the late Lord Rothschild, to pursue his studies in zoology and natural history, is 48 years old today. Because he would not concern himself with exchange and finance and the big affairs of national and international finance, he finds himself cut off from the Rothschild fortune, with an allowance of $25,000 a year, while his younger brother, who followed more closely in the parental footsteps, gets the fortune though not the title. The new Lord Rothschild was born in London on February 8, 1868, as the Hon. Lionel Walter Rothschild. He was educated at Bonn University and Cambridge and served as major in the Royal Wiltshire Yeomanry. He has been a trustee of the British Museum since 1909, and has his own extensive museum at Tring Park, where he has a million samples of butterflies, some 160,000 stuffed birds and many rare animals from all parts of the world. Lord Rothschild is a confirmed bachelor, and his father decided to transfer the fortune to that branch of the family which would carry on the direct descent. Lord Rothschild is entirely happy in his natural history studies. He bought an island in the Pacific for the sole purpose of breeding giant tortoises, and offered $5,000 for a perfect specimen of the arctic flea.

Dr. Rush Rhees, president of the University of Rochester, 56 years old today.

Bitten By Pig.

(Harrodsburg Herald.)
W. A. Barnett, who lives near Shawness Run church, was bitten by a pig last Saturday, the animal's teeth going clear through his thumb, making a painful wound. Mr. Barnett was riding the youngster and had to pull his hand under its jaw to raise its head up and the pig snapped him.

Second Crop Damaged.

(Franklin Favorite.)
Wednesday morning, when the temperature registered 70 above, the second crop of apples growing on a tree in the yard of Mr. G. W. Maxwell, in Franklin, gave evidence of reaching maturity, but a drop of 62 degrees played havoc with the out-of-season fruit. Samples were left at this office Thursday, and it is probably the only record of a second growth of apples in the county where maturity was closely reached.

At 44 Is Father of Nine.

(Mayfield Messenger.)
One day last week we met our old friend, Henry T. Buggs of Carlisle county, in the city. We don't mean to say that Henry is real old, but we have known him about twenty years. Henry is really less than 44 years old, and has yet only nine children, six boys and three girls. He looks young about like he did twenty years ago, and he attributes his youthful looks to the fact that he has been constantly associating with children practically all his married life.

His wife was a Miss Stephens and she has been a true helpmate and ideal companion. They have built a good home and surrounded themselves with the comforts of life. It is in Carlisle county, about half-way between Fancy Farm and Millburn, and a good place to spend the night and get spare ribs, backbone and sausage and good things to eat and the cheer and comfort of a happy home.

OLDEST HOUSE IN OHIO

Report As Read By Waldo Rohuck of the West Union Schools.

The oldest house in Ohio is located in Adams county on a high bluff overlooking the Ohio river, about four miles above Manchester. General Masie, the founder of Manchester, visited this place in 1791, and was so charmed with it that he proceeded to locate it as his own, and built a cabin of buckeye logs, calling it Huckle-eyo Station.

Several years later he proceeded to erect a large frame house, then a very great undertaking. The boards were sawed by hand, with whipsaws and every nail in it was made by hand on an anvil. The house is only one story high, but has two very large chimneys, one single and one double. The house faces the south with a side-front to the east.

Two rooms of this house face the east and between them is the great double chimney. To the west is a wing with a hall and one large room with the other stone chimney at the west end.

The house is still standing and is occupied at the present time by Mr. Jesso Baldwin.

Some wisecracker has proposed a law under which newspaper men may be punished for news "found to be untrue." This will never become a law, as many of the legislators are afraid that should they put such an unjust statute upon the books the editors might get mad and publish some interesting news they know to be absolutely true.

The Chesapeake & Ohio railroad placed an order with the Pullman Company for the construction of twelve new steel express cars. These cars will be seventy feet in length and modern throughout. Orders have also been placed with the company for six additional passenger coaches of the most modern design.

W. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, replied to a purported interview of Attorney General Logan, denying "intimations" and upholding his action in testing the law under which stenographers are employed.

Alleging that her husband abandoned her because she disobeyed his demand that there be no children in their home, Mrs. Viola Palmer sued her husband in Louisville, alleging cruelty and abandonment.

A second probe was begun by the Kentucky Senate when a committee was appointed to investigate charges of extravagance and illegal expenditures made by Attorney General M. M. Logan.

The Court of Appeals sustained the right of Kentucky to tax and restrict foreign insurance companies as the state from which those companies come tax and restrict Kentucky companies.

The Kauffman Anti-trust bill passed the Kentucky House by 79 to 5. It fulfills a platform pledge. The Senate repassed the anti-pass bill with the amendments made in the House.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Braucher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I took the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

AND THE KIDNEYS

Maysville Sufferers Should Take No
Further Risk.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, laguer—why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a tested remedy is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years, have been tested in thousands of cases.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney disease, act now, for gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease may set in and make neglect dangerous. Can Maysville residents demand more convincing proof than the following:

A. Sorries, Locksmith, Aberdeen, O., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to straighten. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the trouble and my kidneys became strong."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sorries had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

VOTED 56 YEARS

In One Precinct and At the Same
Polling Place Has An Old
Republican.

(Adams County Record.)

Because David Scott of Stanford, Ky., recently cast his fifty-fifth vote in the same township, newspapers of the country carried stories of the wonderful achievement. But now comes a voter from Washington county, Ohio, who has recently cast his fifty-sixth vote, and not only was it cast in the same precinct, but at the same voting place.

The man is H. L. Hamilton of Heslop, Washington county. He has voted fifty-six times at the same place, and in all his life he has never scratched a Republican ticket, whether it be township, county, state or nation. He has never missed an election, and until the Australian ballot went into effect did not even mark his ticket, but cast it just as it came from the printer with the Republican emblem.

"But since the new fangled ballot is printed I have to mark a cross at the top of the ticket," he told a friend recently. "But," he added, "I only make the one mark and that is at the head of the Republican ticket. It is good enough for me. It was yesterday, it is today and will be tomorrow."

"IDEAL WEATHER."

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of Millersburg, received a letter from her son, Mr. Charles Miller of Kiscouty, Canada, who writes of the severity of the cold weather in his section. The mercury has been as low as 70 below zero. Hogs while being shipped to market froze to death on the cars, and cattle were piled together in the fields and frozen. Horses which were kept in barns were so cold that they bled at the nose, and it was almost impossible for people to be comfortable close to hot fires. At the time of his writing he said the weather was more comfortable, as it was only 50 below zero then.

MASON COUNTY'S MISSIONARY

Sent By Christian Churches Writes
Interesting Letter From Lu Chow
Fu—Report of Amounts Given
By Different Churches
For Her Support.

The following is submitted for publication by A. F. Stahl, the minister of the Maysville Christian church:

The Christian churches and their Bible schools through their offerings are supporting a missionary in the foreign field. Her name is Mrs. F. C. Buck. She is stationed with her husband at Lu Chow Fu in the province of Anhui, in China. The offerings this past year were not as large as the amount given for the support of the mission work at this station as the county churches gave in 1914, because some of the churches failed to give this year. Last year the following churches gave through the church or their Sunday schools as follows:

Bearley Creek Sunday School	$ 8.80
Dover Church	20.00
Dover Sunday School	27.00
Lawrence Creek Sunday School	10.00
Maysville Church	71.00
Maysville Sunday School	52.00
Maysville Church	125.00
Maysville Sunday School	186.00
Mill Creek Church	40.00
Mill Creek Sunday School	40.00
Minervin Church	8.22
Orangeburg Sunday School	16.07

If it had not been that some of the churches increased their offerings this year this county would not have continued to call itself a living link county having its own missionary. We hope all the Christian churches and Bible schools will contribute this year. The cause is worthy and the amount each church gives is small. We ought to feel the duty of supporting the work in the heathen countries since we know of the wonderful influence the church has exerted in this, our country. This is the time of the year when all the churches should plan to raise their foreign offerings. We have a letter from Mrs. Buck, which she desires all the members of the Christian churches in this county to read.

Lu Chow Fu, Anhui, China,
November 7, 1915.

Members of the Christian Church,
Maysville, Ky.

Dear Friends:

It has been some time since I heard from any of you, but I am going to give you a report of what I am doing anyway. My chief business, as yet, is studying the language, at which I put in from two to four hours a day with my private teacher. Besides this, I teach three hours of English, one hour of singing and one of sewing in the girls' school every week. I have learned to love the Chinese girls as much as I used to love the American girls when I taught them. They are so conscientious in their work. They have so little done for them in their homes that they certainly appreciate anything we can teach them, and are so anxious to learn.

Since we came home from the mountains I have received fifty guests and made thirty-seven calls. Last week I entertained two of the highest class women to a foreign tea. They seemed to enjoy it very much. I felt somewhat like a showman though, for they asked me so many questions about our things and customs. One of the things that appealed to them most was a patchwork quilt, the like of which they had never seen. I offered to teach them to crochet, which seemed to please them very much, but it remains to be seen whether they were interested enough to do it.

I have also entertained the older school girls and helped Mr. Buck in his entertaining. I have not been able to do as much as I would have liked to do, for we had to move. The Buck's returned from their furlough and we had to take some rooms in the hospital, for we have no home provided for us yet. The rooms here are very comfortable, but the idea of living in a hospital is rather sickening.

We expect to have our furlough next year, and then I hope we can get better acquainted. Mr. Buck's furlough was due this year, but he remained over a year so I could get a better hold on the language.

It is getting to be such a comfort since I can understand some of what they say to me. You have no idea how dull one feels to have people talk to them when they can not understand, or perhaps guess at what they are saying and say "yes" when they should say "no."

It has been a very rainy autumn, which has been a hindrance to the work, for the Chinese and especially the women, will not go out in the rain. I trust that the churches of Mason county are having a prosperous year both financially and spiritually. Sincerely your co-worker on the field,
MINA VAN CLEAVE BUCK.

WHEN AMERICA WILL BECOME THE TRUE LAND OF FREEDOM.

[The Ledger publishes the following, but is not committed by its publication in any way whatsoever, reserving the right to express its personal opinions through the editorial columns.—Editor.]

(Mrs. H. W. Hook, Springdale, Ky.)

During that stormy period in the history of this country, immediately preceding the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, many great thinkers and powerful leaders of public sentiment were discovered. Patrick Henry, Samuel Adams, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson and many others, proved their ability to grasp great problems as only great statesmen do.

The acts of oppression, committed against them by their sovereign, had been submitted to until submission became unbearable.

Patrick Henry, that fiery, impulsive Virginian, upon one occasion of evident tyranny, cried: "I know not what course other may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death."

So, when Thomas Jefferson was delegated to draft a Declaration of Independence, he merely voiced the sentiments of his countrymen, in announcing the self-evident truth, applicable to all mankind—"All men are created equal, endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among the life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." That to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

How Thomas Jefferson and his fellow statesmen would repudiate the narrow, arbitrary interpretation of these high ideals, entertained by certain people today.

Think you Thomas Jefferson or Patrick Henry were so self-inflated as to believe that their wives and mothers were not as eager for liberty as themselves? Does patriotism depend upon sex?

Soon after the signing of the Declaration of Independence the various states adopted constitutions, good, though not perfect. Some deficiencies were discovered requiring changes and remodeling, until at the present time, most of them, entirely discarded, have been superseded by new constitutions adapted to modern conditions. Several which at the beginning, limited the right of suffrage to "property holders," others to "taxpayers" alone, and still others having "religious qualifications" have happily outgrown such undemocratic principles. But alas! There yet remains 45,000,000 intelligent citizens of this fair republic who have never been permitted any voice whatever in the government which makes the laws to rule them. Is this democracy?

Forty-five million citizens are still deprived of this inalienable right, vouchsafed to them by those liberty-loving builders of this government, and are compelled to associate with the imbeciles and criminals in America's great trial of voteless people.

Though a long and bloody war proved the injustice and failure of the principle of "taxation without representation," 45,000,000 taxpayers have no representation whatever, save that oft-quoted "indirect method" of influencing their voting friends.

The failure of this method was proven in 1914, when a committee of ladies representing their sisters of Kentucky, modestly requested Kentucky's legislators to put the question of a suffrage amendment before the people to be voted upon. The contemptuous manner in which their request was refused proved the weakness of such a method, besides placing a reproach upon Kentucky's boasted civility and upon the Democratic party in Kentucky that can not soon be forgotten. But let us hope that the Legislature of 1916 will have a better record.

Our national constitution laid down the general principles of our government, but the details had necessarily to be disposed of by new laws and by amendments. Only when a strong need was felt have the people deemed it necessary to make any change. As Thomas Jefferson so nobly words it, "Mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they have become accustomed." However, politics and the passing events have had their effect upon the minds of the people and changes must come. Our constitution has been amended several times when serious omissions have been discovered. One which aroused much discussion and was the Fifteenth Amendment, stating that "the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

In the broad light of the present day

we can see there is one more correction to make and after the word "color" should be inserted the word "sex," thus bringing to the problem of the nation's housekeeping, man's willing companion, helpmeet and equal.

"The right of citizens to vote!" What does it mean? Who is a citizen of the United States? You will find the answer to the last question in the Fourteenth Amendment. "All persons, born or naturalized, in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the states in which they reside." Is a woman a "person"? Is she not either born at naturalized in the United States? Is she not subject to the jurisdiction thereof?

The remark is frequently heard, "I do not wish the woman I love to dabble in the dirty mire of politics." If politics is a filthy mire, pray whose slatternly housekeeping has made it so? Do women prefer husbands besmirched with it? Surely not. Let me tell you what they prefer. When conditions are not what they should be they desire to prove themselves the true helpmeets and to help their husband clean up whatever offends them and to work alongside with them to perfect the affairs of the nation.

Man admits his inability to keep his country in order when he describes its management, the highest privilege which it bestows upon him, as "filthy."

What real woman wants to stand upon a pedestal anyhow and to be "protected" from the cares of modern progress? She desires, rather, to help to do the things that are worth while, to share this short life with her "equals"—mind you, "equals," not "inferiors" nor "superiors."

Because a man follows the mercantile business, does it follow that he may not read and think over the issues of the day, and, once a year record by the ballot his opinions of their solution? Must a blacksmith speak or think of nothing but his forge? Is he any less successful in his labors because he walks to the polls occasionally and states his wishes about the laws which are to govern him?

It is hard to understand how any one, really desiring our nation to rise to the greatest height of freedom, can wish to postpone the entrance of woman into political life. How can we afford to leave out any element of power, especially one which is admitted to represent the finer, nobler and more refined side of humanity.

In the crisis which the world is facing today, the conflict of nations, the injustice of the present system is most clearly brought to light. The sex which has borne the children, reared and cared for them, is completely ignored and driven before the whirlwind of war, as the chaff is blown before the storm. The sons, dearer to her than life itself, are snatched from her protecting arms to feed the monster.

All that the women may do is to organize themselves into peace leagues, composed, thank God, of women from nearly every nation under the sun, and to protest against such tyranny.

Perhaps this is the lesson which our Heavenly Father has for humanity, in this upheaval. Perhaps He wishes mankind to understand that all the finer, better elements of humanity must be considered, as well as a complete living tolerance with each other's shortcomings, before the highest, most perfect form of democracy can exist upon earth. So long as the gentler sex is ignored, while coarse criminals are allowed to precede her, such results as we see following Kaiser Wilhelm's attempts to rule woman's sphere and to arbitrarily limit woman's sphere to the "three K's," may be expected.

Those who are already sharing the great privileges of our blessed country should be glad to share them with others. Let us each, then, strive to aid the progress of our nation toward that coming day when she will be an example for all the world of liberty, freedom and justice, administered with the consent of the governed, the day of complete prohibition of all evils which degrade and destroy.

NEW ORLEANS TO GET ANOTHER CAPTURED FLAG.

Boston, February 8.—Mayor Curley of Boston starts today on a long trip to New Orleans to personally present to the Ladies' Confederacy Memorial Association to New Orleans the old Confederate flag taken from the New Orleans city hall by General Benjamin F. Butler and in 1863 presented by him to the city of Boston. The flag which Boston is returning was made by an association of women of New Orleans for presentation to a regiment of young men, but was seized by General Butler before being presented. It has hung in the city hall here for over half a century, and is returning in recognition of the healing of the sectional feeling between the two sections of the United States.

Mason County Court convened Judge W. H. Rice presiding.
The settlements filed at the last term of court and which were laid over until this term for exceptions, were confirmed and ordered recorded, no exceptions being taken.
A paper bearing the date of December 5, 1915, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Louise Simpson, colored, deceased, was produced in court and filed. The due execution of said paper was proven by the testimony of John Claybrooke and Hattie Green, attesting witnesses thereto, and admitted to probate.
A paper bearing date of December 4, 1902, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Margaret E. Childs, deceased, was produced in court and ordered filed. The due execution of said paper was proven by the testimony of R. K. Hoeflich, attesting witness thereto, and the deceased attesting witness, James Barbour, was proven by the testimony of Frank Wright and J. F. Barbour to be wholly that of the said James Barbour, and the will was admitted to probate.

RENOVATING MEDICINES.

Wholesale denunciation of proprietary medicines is no more justifiable than wholesale denunciation of the medical profession. It is no more true that there are reputable physicians who unselfishly devote their lives to an unending struggle with disease than that there are standard remedies which do as good a work; often where the work of the good physician can not reach. A good example is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has for forty years been alleviating the sufferings of women and during the ill peculiar to their sex.
